

Right as a British citizen currently resident in the EU	Current right as UKinEU	Withdrawal Agreement / ring-fenced rights	No deal
Reside, work and study in current country of residence	✓	✓	?
Residence rights acquired (if conditions met) and status doesn't have to be applied for	✓	◐	✗
Automatic right to move, reside or work in EU country other than country of residence	✓	✗	✗
Be joined by existing family members (spouse, partner in durable relationship, ascendants /descendants who are directly dependent on you)	✓	✓	?
Be joined by future spouses	✓	✗	?
For those with permanent residence: move away from host country - return within 2 years and retain status	✓	✓	?
For those with permanent residence: move away from host country - return after 3-5 years and retain status	✗	✓	?
Return to UK with EU or non-EU family under EU régime	✓	✗	✗
Continue working in more than one country as frontier worker	✓	✓	?
Recognition of professional qualifications in host country	✓	✓ (if specific recognition decision)	?
Recognition of professional qualifications beyond host country	✓	✗	✗
Provide cross border services as self-employed persons	✓	✗	✗
Study in UK on 'home fees' rather than international fees	✓	?	?
Social security aggregation: previous periods of insurance in other EU countries taken into account to calculate pension benefits	✓	✓	?
Export of benefits	✓	✓	?
Reciprocal health care for those eligible for S1	✓	✓	?
UK driving licence remains valid in host country	✓	?	✗
Participate in local elections in host country	✓	◐	◐
Stand in local elections in host country	✓	◐	◐
Participate in European elections in host country	✓	✗	✗
Seek consular protection from other EU states in third country	✓	✗	✗
Oversight and governance: binding rights with direct effect	✓	✓	✗
Same rights apply to British residents in all EU states	✓	✓	✗